

Please note that Incidental Fees are based on your course registration per academic period; the Fall academic period is September - December and the Winter academic period is January - April. Academic Fees are charged on a per course basis. An "incoming" student is: (1) one who is beginning studies at TST for the first time; or (2) one who is returning to TST after at least eight years' absence; or (3) one who is beginning studies at TST at a different level of program (e.g., Th.D. from Th.M., or Th.M. from M.Div., but not M.Div. from M.T.S.). All other students are "returning" students. All fees are in Canadian dollars.

The Senior Bursary: St. Augustine's Seminary will discount Seniors [age 65 or over] 50% of the tuition amount of their invoice. The amount will be entered onto your account as an award and your account will be adjusted accordingly.

A student is considered to be registered as soon as he or she has paid tuition and incidental fees, or has made appropriate arrangements for deferral of payment. University of Toronto Student Accounts no longer mails paper invoices to students. You are expected to view your account on the Student Web Service (ROSI). Your account can be viewed in two different ways. Invoice format groups the charges assessed and any payments or credits. Your account number is displayed on the top right-hand corner. It consists of the first five characters of your surname (in capital letters) and 10 numbers which are your student number with leading zeroes. Make sure you distinguish between the letter 'O' and the number 'zero'. You can print a copy of your account in invoice format to take to the bank if making payment at a teller. Please do not remit payment to St. Augustine's Seminary. Payments at a bank machine or by telephone or on-line banking do not require a paper invoice. Monthly email notices are sent if your account has a balance. This email notice will be sent using the University's UTOR email service; please ensure that you activate your UTOR email address. Fees are subject to change and all updates are posted on our website at <http://www.staugustines.on.ca/>. Click on Academic then Student Info to Fees and Financial Aid.
